

NONDISCRIMINATION/EQUAL OPPORTUNITY AND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION

Islesboro Central School does not discriminate on the basis of sex or other protected categories in its education programs and activities, as required by federal and state laws/regulations.

Discrimination against and harassment of school employees because of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, ancestry or national origin, age, disability or genetic information are prohibited.

Discrimination against and harassment of students because of race, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, ancestry or national origin, or disability are prohibited.

The School Board directs the school administration to implement a continuing program designed to prevent discrimination against all applicants, employees, students and other individuals having access rights to school premises and activities.

Islesboro Central School has designated and authorized an Affirmative Action Officer and a Title IX Coordinator who is responsible for ensuring compliance with all federal and state requirements relating to nondiscrimination, including sexual harassment. The Affirmative Action Officer/Title IX Coordinator is a person with direct access to the Superintendent.

Islesboro Central School has implemented complaint procedures for resolving complaints of discrimination/harassment and sexual harassment under this policy. Islesboro Central School provides required notices of these complaint procedures and how they can be accessed, as well as the school compliance with federal and state civil rights laws and regulations to all applicants for employment, employees, students, parents and other interested parties.
